FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR:

With this Sunday we begin the Church's long meditation on the Gospel according to Matthew, which unfolds for the thirty-three Sundays in Ordinary Time. This Gospel seeks to connect Jesus to the Old Testament.

Jesus is seen as the fulfillment of the Isaiah prophecy of a great light flooding the land of Galilee. In that region on the seashore of the Sea of Galilee, Jesus gathers his disciples. The four fishermen, Peter and his brother Andrew, along with the Zebedee brothers, James and John, abandoned their business and follow Jesus immediately. The Scripture scholars tell us that the original language connotes a sense of inevitability and urgency in Jesus' call to these four men and in their spontaneous, unquestioned response. There was no fence sitting, and no hesitation. The time had come and the four fishermen knew deeply that this was their once-in-a-lifetime chance. They immediately abandoned everything to follow him.

The people of Israel were raised or schooled to expect a messiah who would act in specific, recognizable ways, such as restoring health, sight and wholeness, healing and freedom from the oppression and anguish of sin. People are cured of every disease and affliction of body and soul. The messianic expectations are fulfilled.

A new song is heard. Someone was new and he intended to make all things new.

FIXING GOD'S HOUSE

Celebrate the Past and Embrace the Future
Please do not forget our commitment to maintain this legacy with integrity and loving devotion, so that we can hand it (the Church of All Souls) down with utmost joy and pride to our younger generation.

Thanks to you for your support and generosity. Now, plans are being put in place for the interior painting of our Church, which is scheduled to take place sometime in the month of February 2011.

The next projects in our 'on-going Campaign for "FIXING GOD'S HOUSE" are: the fixing and restoration of the Narthexes (entrances of the Church) and Windows in the Baptistry of our Church, the replacement and redesigning of the Church Steel doors, & Wooden doors and upgrade the Church restrooms in order to bring them up to code. As of today, we have received a total of $ 355,412.13. As per the last financial report we spent $ 238,648.07. Reflexiones del Párroco:

Con este Domingo comenzamos la meditación larga de la Iglesia sobre el Evangelio de San Mateo, que se desarrolla por los treinta y tres Domingos del Tiempo Ordinario. Este Evangelio pretende conectar a Jesús con el antiguo Testamento.

Jesús es visto como el cumplimiento de la profecía de Isaías de una gran luz que inunda la tierra de Galilea. En esa región en la costa del Mar de Galilea, Jesús reúne a sus discípulos. Los cuatro pescadores, Pedro y su hermano Andrés, junto con los hermanos Zebedeo, Santiago y Juan, abandonan su negocio y siguen a Jesús inmediatamente. Los estudiosos de las escrituras nos dicen que el idioma original denota un sentido de inevitabilidad y urgencia en la llamada de Jesús a estos cuatro hombres y en su respuesta espontánea, incuestionable. No hubo indecisión. Había llegado el momento y los cuatro pescadores sabían profundamente que esta era su oportunidad de una vez-en-la-vida. Inmediatamente abandonaron todo para seguirlo.

El pueblo de Israel fue criado o educado a esperar un Mesías que actuaría en forma específica y reconocible, tal como el restablecimiento de la salud, la vista y plenitud, sanación y libertad de la opresión y la angustia del pecado. Personas son curadas de toda enfermedad y aflicción de cuerpo y alma. Se cumplen las expectativas mesiánicas.

Se escucha una nueva canción. Alguien era nuevo y su intención era hacer todas las cosas nuevas.

Hasta hoy día, hemos recibido un total de $ 355,412.13 Según el último informe financiero gastamos $ 238,648.07. Cualquier donación que pueda hacer hacia esta noble causa será siempre apreciada.
