FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR:

One cannot miss a discernible pattern in the various stories in the book of Genesis. God bestows innumerable blessings upon people who instead of appreciating the giver of the gifts, consistently display ingratitude. Adam and Eve, disobeyed God and chose to place themselves out of God's loving and providential care. Cain refuses to mend his ways, become self-centered and gives in to envy to the point of killing his brother Abel and eliminate competition. The people of God during the time of Noah took God and his gifts for granted and pursued evil. The people building the tower of Babel attempted to appropriate the gift of language in order to promote pride and to build a city for themselves rather than enhance divine worship and praise.

However, today's first reading presents a welcome change: with Abraham and his wife Sara; We are invited to explore in detail their faith journey. Abraham upon hearing God's call, responds generously and leaves behind all that is familiar to him, even the land of his ancestors, and seek security in the words God speaks to him. God establishes a covenant with him and promises him with the blessings to become the 'father of a great nation' through his son Isaac and grandson, Jacob: Israel.

The Gospel recounts the event on Mount Tabor, where Peter, James and John witness the stunning power of God, as Jesus is transfigured before their eyes. God's voice thunders forth: "This is my Chosen Son, Listen to Him. On Mount Tabor, the sky was clear. Jesus was praying. As he prayed, his face shone and his clothes dazzled. On one side of him was Moses – the great lawgiver. On the other side was Elijah – the greatest of all the prophets. And, there was the voice of the Father. No wonder Peter exclaimed: 'It is wonderful for us to be here!'

Then there would be another day and another Hill. This time the sky was dark. The face of Jesus was covered with sweat and blood. His clothes did not dazzle – they had been taken from him. For companions he had two thieves. There was no voice from heaven, only scoffers were heard. The disciples in fear for their lives, did not want any part of this, they ran away.

The only thing in common was that once again Jesus was praying. What sustained Him in bright and dark moments alike was his special relationship of fidelity and filial devotion with the Father.

This special relationship is now open to us. It will sustain us through all our dark moments until the glory of Easter shines fully on us.

The readings today challenge us to listen to God speaking to us: having chosen us in Christ, He calls us each by name and continues to establish a covenant of love with us.

Reflexiones del Párroco:

Uno no puede perder de ver un patrón discernible en las diversas historias del libro del Génesis. Dios otorgó innumerables bendiciones sobre personas que en lugar de apreciar el donante de los regalos, constantemente muestran ingratitud. Adán y Eva, desobedecieron a Dios y eligieron ponerse fuera de la atención amorosa y providencial de Dios. Caín se niega a enmendar su conducta, se convierte en un ser egoísta y se da a la envidia al punto de matar a su hermano Abel y eliminar la competencia. El pueblo de Dios durante el tiempo de Noé tomó a Dios y sus dones por concedidos y persiguieron el mal. El pueblo construyendo la torre de Babel intentaron asignar el regalo de lenguaje para promover orgullo y construir una ciudad para sí mismos en lugar de aumentar la alabanza y el culto divino.

Sin embargo, la primera lectura de hoy presenta un cambio bienvenido: Abraham y su esposa Sara; Somos invitados a explorar con detalle su viaje de fe. Abraham al oír el llamado de Dios, responde generosamente y deja atrás todo lo familiar a él, incluso la tierra de sus antepasados y busca seguridad en las palabras de Dios hacia él. Dios establece un pacto con él y le promete con las bendiciones de convertirse en el 'padre de una gran nación' a través de su hijo Isaac y nieto, Jacob: Israel.

El Evangelio relata el evento en el Monte Tabor, donde Pedro, Santiago y Juan presencia el impresionante poder de Dios, conforme es transfigurado Jesús ante sus ojos. De una nube luminosa saltó la voz de Dios: "Este es mi Hijo amado, escúchenlo."

En el Monte Tabor, el cielo estaba claro. Jesús estaba orando. Mientras oraba, brilló su rostro y su ropa deslumbró. Por un lado de Él estaba Moisés - el gran legislador. Del otro lado estaba Elías - el más grande de todos los profetas. Y estaba la voz del Padre. Con razón Pedro exclamó: '¡Es maravilloso para nosotros estar aquí!'

A continuación, habría otro día y otro Monte. Esta vez el cielo estaba oscuro. El rostro de Jesús estaba cubierto de sudor y sangre. Su ropa no deslumbraba - se los habían quitado. De compañeros tenía a dos ladrones. No hubo ninguna voz del cielo, solo burlas se escuchaban. Los discípulos en temor por sus vidas, no querían tomar parte de esto, huyeron.

Lo único en común era que una vez más Jesús oraba. Lo que lo sostenía tanto en momentos brillantes como oscuros era Su relación especial de fidelidad y devoción filial con el Padre.

Esta relación especial ahora está abierta a nosotros. Nos sustentará durante todos nuestros momentos oscuros hasta que la gloria de la Pascua brille plenamente sobre nosotros.

Las lecturas de hoy nos retan a escuchar a Dios hablándonos: habiéndonos elegido en Cristo, nos llama a cada uno por nombre y continúa estableciendo un Pacto de amor con nosotros.
