FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR:

Pentecost celebrates the fiftieth day of Easter – a time of fullness and grace.

On that first Pentecost vigil, Jesus' followers gathered in the upper room, while people of all nations waited outside. The disciples murmured a prayer of hope, "Lord, send us your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth." The Acts of the Apostles, records, that "a strong driving wind ... filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit" (Acts 2:2-4). The Gospel shows the disciples as weak human lumps of clay, huddled in their room, afraid. Into this pitiful mass of earthlings Jesus breathes divine life, saying, "Receive the Holy Spirit" (John 20:22).

God's creative Spirit came to bring about something new, to re-create the world beginning in the upper room, with fire and wind, breath and water filling the frightened apostles (human lumps of clay) with the Holy Spirit of God.

Just like Adam and Eve, they become living beings, re-created in the divine image of Jesus himself. In First Corinthians we learn that through water the same divine life has been instilled in us: "For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body ... and we were all given to drink of one Spirit" 1 Cor 12:13).

The story of the Pentecost is the story of the Fire of the Holy Spirit, burning in human hearts, which melts and moulds people together in peace and harmony, to dispel the fears, suspicion, misunderstanding, confusion and doubt and fear. With the coming of the Spirit at Pentecost, the new born Church took its first breath and came to life.

Through the prayer of the Church, the Holy Spirit comes to us even as we are gathered in prayer today in our church.

The Spirit of God brings Wisdom, Understanding, Counsel, Fortitude, Knowledge, Holiness and Awe and Respect for God.

Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the Earth

Reflexiones del Párroco:

Pentecostés celebra el quincuagésimo día de Pascua: un momento de plenitud y gracia.

En esa primer vigilia de Pentecostés, los seguidores de Jesús se reunieron en la sala superior, mientras que personas de todas las Naciones esperaban afuera. Los discípulos murmuraron una oración de esperanza, "Señor, envíanos tu Espíritu y renueva la faz de la tierra." Los Hechos de los Apóstoles, anota, que "un viento fuerte ... llenó toda la casa en la que estaban. Entonces se les aparecieron lenguas como de fuego, que se partieron y llegaron a descansar en cada uno de ellos. Y fueron todos llenados con el Espíritu Santo"(Hechos 2:2-4). El Evangelio muestra a los discípulos como débiles trozos humanos de barro, acurrucados en su habitación, con miedo. En esta lamentable multitud de humanos Jesús respira la vida divina, diciendo, "Reciban el Espíritu Santo" (Juan 20:22).

El Espíritu creativo de Dios vino a traer algo nuevo, para recrear el comienzo del mundo en la sala superior, con fuego y viento, aliento y agua llenando a los apóstoles asustados (trozos humanos de barro) con el Espíritu Santo de Dios. Al igual que Adán y Eva, se convierten en seres vivos, recreados a la imagen divina de Jesús mismo. En el Primer Corintios aprendemos que a través del agua la misma vida divina ha sido inculcada en nosotros: "Que en un solo Espíritu fuimos todos bautizados en un solo cuerpo... y se nos dio a beber de un solo Espíritu" 1 Cor 12:13).

La historia de Pentecostés es la historia del Fuego del Espíritu Santo, encendida en los corazones humanos, que se derrite y amolda a personas unidas en paz y armonía, para disipar temores, sospechas, malentendidos, confusión, duda y miedo. Con la venida del Espíritu en Pentecostés, la Iglesia recién nacida tomó su primer aliento y volvió a la vida.

A través de la oración de la Iglesia, el Espíritu Santo viene a nosotros, incluso mientras estamos reunidos en oración hoy en nuestra Iglesia.

El espíritu de Dios trae Sabiduría, Comprensión, Consejo, Fortaleza, Conocimiento, Santidad, Asombro y Respeto a Dios.

Señor, envía tu
Espíritu
y renueva
la faz
de la Tierra
