

TARDINESS

In view of safety of our children and keeping them out of harm's way, once the classes for the Religious Education program are in session, we close and secure the doors and all access to the building.

Late arrivals must obtain an entry pass from the office of the Religious Education before being admitted to the classroom. Please check the following policies in the handbook of the program.